Organizational Development Specialist and Trainer

The organization

The New Hampshire Community Loan Fund provides loans, capital, and technical assistance to those facing barriers to fully participate in our state's economy. The following core values guide our mission and work: We live respect, embrace challenges, and advance equity.

Diversity, equity, and inclusion have always been keys to our success. We are an Equal Opportunity Employer, and our employees are people with different strengths, experiences, and backgrounds who share a passion for improving people's lives.

About the opportunity

Do you flourish while helping people achieve their goals by building their professional and personal skills? In this job you will support and strengthen people's growth by providing training and education to members of resident-owned manufactured-home communities (ROCs), both as individuals and in groups. You will deliver a leadership-training curriculum that enhances technical abilities and communication skills. In-person and remote trainings across the state will connect you to adult students eager to sharpen their knowledge.

You will be on the forefront of helping ROC cooperatives achieve their goals while fostering empowerment, community spirit, and self-sufficiency. The successful applicant will also be responsible for providing general governance-related technical assistance to an assigned portfolio of ROCs. This position involves regular night and weekend commitments and in-state travel.

We offer a hybrid work plan combining remote work with time in our Concord, N.H. office.

Salary range starts at $55,000 with comprehensive benefits.

If this description is a good fit, we would love to hear from you! Please send a resume with cover letter to jobopening@communityloanfund.org.
